

Hall County Jailer Arrested

December 17, 2012

On December 17, 2012, a Hall County Jailer was arrested after an investigation into a July incident involving inappropriate contact with a female inmate in the Hall County Jail.

The Sheriff's Office was made aware of the situation last week and immediately requested that the Georgia Bureau of Investigation conduct an independent investigation into the matter. On December 17th, Agents with the GBI obtained warrants for the arrest of 26 year-old Marcell Allen.

Allen surrendered himself later that same date at the Hall County Jail, where he was booked on one count of sexual assault of a person in custody and later released on bond.

This case remains under investigation by the Georgia Bureau of Investigation.
