We are a Kingdom community of covenant believers seeking to become living examples of the love of God and the excellence of Jesus Christ. We believe that through a daily devotion to God and a constant relationship with Jesus Christ, the Holy Spirit will equip and empower us to live with excellence. We respond to God's ability in our lives by sharing ministry of reconciliation and sacrifice, in the hope that all will believe and become a part of God's family.

- Our Missions Ministries provides personal supplies to people who are homeless/in transition and food through a weekly free meal on Wednesdays served in St. John's Fellowship Hall and snacks for Fair Str. School students living in motels.
- Ministry contacts are Beverly Wilson and Mae Catherine Wilmont.
